Cooperation between the United Nations and the Pacific Islands Forum

New Zealand: draft resolution

Cooperation between the United Nations and the Pacific Islands Forum

The General Assembly,

Recalling its resolutions 49/1 of 17 October 1994, 59/20 of 8 November 2004, 61/48 of 4 December 2006 and 63/200 of 19 December 2008,

Welcoming the ongoing efforts towards closer cooperation between the United Nations and the Pacific Islands Forum and its associated institutions, and affirming the value of considering ways to further strengthen this cooperation,

Recognizing the fortieth anniversary of the establishment of the Pacific Islands Forum in 1971, and noting the key role it continues to play in promoting sustainable development, environmental protection, good governance, and peace and security in the Pacific through regional cooperation, including through the implementation of the Pacific Plan endorsed by leaders of the Pacific Islands Forum in 2005,

Welcoming the first ever participation by a Secretary-General of the United Nations at the forty-second Pacific Islands Forum in Auckland, as well as his preceding visits to Australia, Solomon Islands and Kiribati, and taking note of the joint statement issued by Pacific Islands Forum leaders and the Secretary-General,

Having considered the report of the Secretary-General on cooperation between the United Nations and regional and other organizations,[1]

1. Takes note of the report of the Secretary-General,[1] in particular paragraphs 116 to 123 on cooperation between the United Nations and the Pacific Islands Forum, and encourages further such cooperation;

2. Welcomes the commitment by Pacific Islands Forum leaders and the Secretary-General to enhanced high-level dialogue between the members of the Pacific Islands Forum and the United Nations, including meetings between the Secretary-General and Pacific Islands Forum leaders at regular intervals;

3. Invites the Secretary-General to consider ways to promote and expand cooperation and coordination with Pacific Islands Forum members and the Pacific Islands Forum secretariat, particularly in the areas identified in the joint statement issued by Pacific Islands Forum leaders and the Secretary-General of the United Nations on 7 September 2011;

4. Requests the Secretary-General to submit to the General Assembly at its sixty-seventh session a report on the implementation of the present resolution;

5. Decides to include in the provisional agenda of its sixty-seventh session the sub-item entitled "Cooperation between the United Nations and the Pacific Islands Forum".

4. Stresses the importance of the full involvement of all relevant stakeholders in the implementation of the Monterrey Consensus[2] at all levels, and also stresses the importance of their full participation in the financing for development follow-up process, in accordance with the rules of procedure of the General Assembly, in particular the accreditation procedures and modalities of participation utilized at the Monterrey and Doha Conferences;

5. Decides that the modalities for the fifth High-level Dialogue will be the same as those used for the fourth High-level Dialogue, as described in its resolution 64/194 of 21 December 2009;

6. Decides also that the fifth High-level Dialogue will consist of a series of plenary and informal meetings, three interactive multi-stakeholder round tables and an informal interactive dialogue;

7. Decides further that the themes of the round tables and of the informal interactive dialogue will be as follows:

(a) Round table 1: The reform of the international monetary and financial system and its implications for development;

(b) Round table 2: The impact of the world financial and economic crisis on foreign direct investment and other private flows, external debt and international trade;

(c) Round table 3: The role of financial and technical development cooperation, including innovative sources of development finance, in leveraging the mobilization of domestic and international financial resources for development;

(d) Informal interactive dialogue: The link between financing for development and achieving the internationally agreed development goals, including the Millennium Development Goals;

8. Decides that the fifth High-level Dialogue will result in a summary by the President of the General Assembly, which will be issued as a document of the Assembly.
